The Lincoln Centennial Association

Springfield, Ill.

ITS OBJECTS.

What It Has Accomplished.

What It Hopes To Accomplish.

JOHN W. BUNN, . . . . .	Vice-President
J. H. HOLBROOK, . . . . .	Treasurer
PHILIP BARTON WARREN, . . . . .	Secretary

The Inception.

To Springfield Mr. Lincoln came as a young man to begin the practice of law; here he was married and here his children were born; here in Springfield was laid the foundation for that great mental development that made him the man of all times—a man whose great attainments and useful life have added lustre to the history of his state, nation, and the world. Here he had fondly planned to return. Here his body and those of his wife and several children repose.

Even toward the close of the last century, many of Springfield's citizens had personal recollections of him. As his fame was increased with passing time, local celebrations of the anniversaries of his birth became more frequent. For a number of years the celebrations took the form of banquets served under the auspices of the Sangamo Club, a local social organization. With the approach of the centennial anniversary came a realization of the fact it was fitting and proper that the central movement for the celebration should emanate from his home city, and from the people among whom he had lived before being called to his great work.

It was soon made apparent that a proper celebration would require an organization, and that the object of such an organization should be more comprehensive than that of providing for the one celebration.

THE ORGANIZATION OF THE ASSOCIATION.

The Executive Committee, appointed from among the citizens of Springfield, to arrange for the centennial celebration, concluded that the time had arrived for a permanent organization, which might undertake the patriotic duty of preserving to posterity the words and works of Abraham Lincoln. The result of the work of this committee was the incorporation of the Lincoln Centennial Association, under the laws of Illinois, by the following gentlemen:

HON. MELVILLE W. FULLER,
Chief Justice United States Supreme Court.

HON. SHELBY M. CULLOM,
United States Senator for Illinois.

HON. ALBERT J. HOPKINS,
U. S. Senator for Illinois.

HON. JOSEPH G. CANNON,
Speaker of the Federal House of Representatives.

HON. ADLAI E. STEVENSON,
Ex-Vice-President of the United States.

HON. CHARLES S. DENEEN,
Governor of Illinois.

HON. JOHN P. HAND,
Chief Justice Supreme Court of Illinois.

HON. J. O. HUMPHREY,
United States District Judge.

HON. JAMES A. ROSE,
Secretary of State of Illinois.

HON. B. F. CALDWELL,
Member of Congress for Illinois.

HON. RICHARD YATES,
Ex-Governor of Illinois.

MR. MELVILLE E. STONE, of New York.

MR. HORACE WHITE,
of New York.

MR. JOHN W. BUNN,
of Springfield.

DR. WILLIAM JAYNE,
of Springfield.

The objects of the organization, as stated in its charter, are:

“To properly observe throughout the Nation, the One Hundredth Anniversary of the Birth of Abraham Lincoln, to Preserve to Posterity the Memory of his Words and Works, and to Stimulate the Patriotism of the Youth of the Land by Appropriate Annual Exercises.”

CO-OPERATION OF THE STATE.

It was not difficult to convince the members of the Illinois legislature that the state should be one of the factors in the centennial anniversary, and so in October, 1907, the House and Senate adopted a joint resolution authorizing the Governor to appoint a Commission of fifteen representative citizens to have charge of all arrangements for a fitting and proper celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of the “greatest of all American statesmen.”

The Governor at once appointed the Commissioners and from that time the State Commission and the Lincoln Centennial Association co-operated in the preparation for the centennial anniversary which took place in Springfield on the 12th of February, 1909.

THE CELEBRATION UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE ASSOCIATION.

At the first celebration held under its auspices, February twelfth, nineteen hundred and nine, the Right Honorable James Bryce, Ambassador Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from Great Britain; the Honorable J. J. Jusserand, Ambassador Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the French Republic; the Honorable Jonathan P. Dolliver, United States Senator for Iowa; and the Honorable William Jennings Bryan, of Nebraska, delivered memorable addresses in the afternoon to an audience of ten thousand people, and in the evening at a banquet served to eight hundred guests.

At the second celebration, February twelfth, nineteen hundred and ten, the Honorable Charles S. Deneen, Governor of Illinois, and Doctor Booker T. Washington, of the Tuskegee Institute, spoke at a banquet served in the St. Nicholas Hotel, Springfield.

On February eleventh, nineteen hundred and eleven, the Association celebrated the one hundredth and second anniversary of Mr. Lincoln's birth with a banquet served in the State Armory to nearly a thousand people, who heard the Honorable William Howard Taft, then President of the United States, and the Honorable Martin W. Littleton, Member of Congress from New York.

The fourth celebration, in the form of a banquet, served February twelfth, nineteen hundred and twelve, in the Leland Hotel at Springfield, brought to the members of the Association most instructive addresses by the Honorable Henry Cabot Lodge, United States Senator from Massachusetts, and the Honorable Frank B. Willis, Member of Congress from Ohio.

Again on the evening of the twelfth of February, nineteen hundred and thirteen, nearly eight hundred of the members of the Association and their friends met at a banquet served in the Illinois State Armory at Springfield to celebrate the one hundred and fourth anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln.

On this occasion Count J. Von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador to the United States, and the Honorable Joseph W. Bailey, United States Senator for Texas, were the speakers of the evening.

At each celebration, appropriate souvenirs have been provided, these usually being books, touching the life and work of Mr. Lincoln. After each celebration, the addresses which were delivered have been published in attractive form, and, of themselves, make valuable additions to the subject "Lincoln." That they are highly appreciated is manifested by the many applications for copies made to the Association by the large Libraries and Historical Societies.

What the Association has done since its organization it hopes to continue. The character of its celebrations is well established. It now has over seven hundred members, and it desires that every admirer of Abraham Lincoln may be enrolled with it and help in the patriotic work it has undertaken.

The fee for life membership is twenty-five dollars, which includes a place at the next banquet served after admission to membership.

PHILIP BARTON WARREN,
Secretary.
